"I'm so glad you found my phone but I wish you didn't play on it and act the way you did." Aliva said to Alanis. This is what Aliva eventually said after her whirlwind adventure of losing her phone. The day started with everyone racing around the crowded playground. Aliva started to walk around the playground and she wanted to call her mom because she just remembered she left her math folder at home.

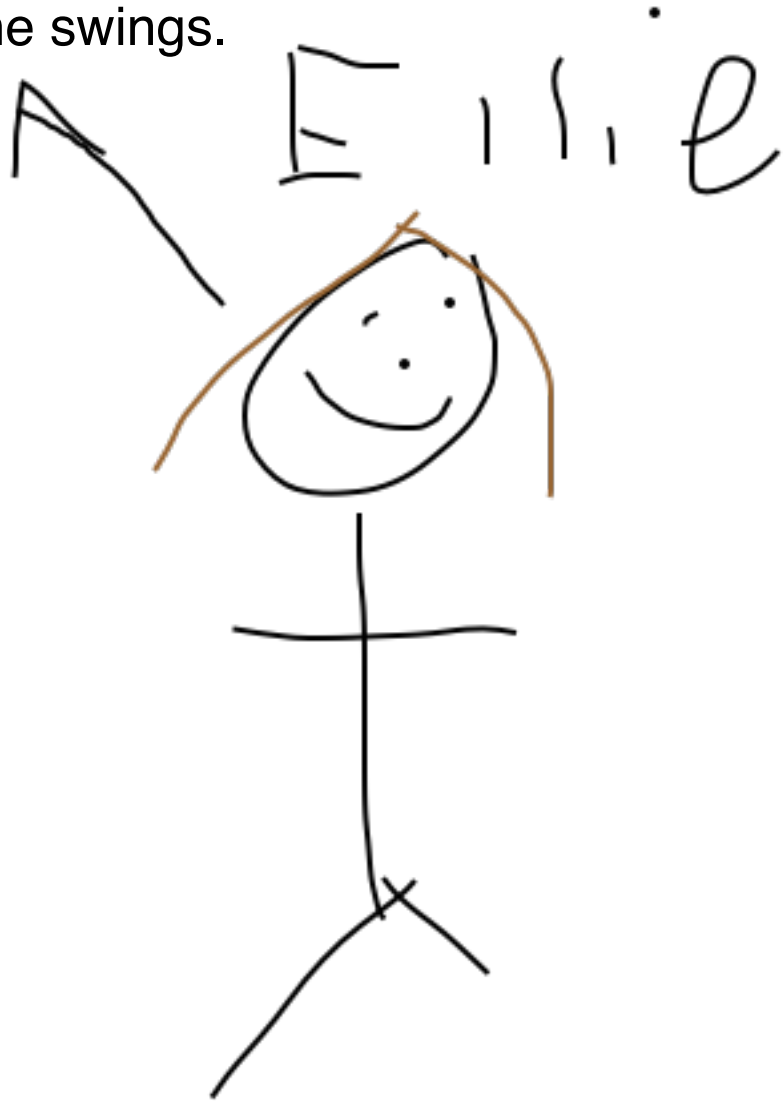

She reached in her pocket, and she noticed it wasn't there! So she checked her backpack and it wasn't there either. Aliva tried to retrace her steps but there were too many people running around.

She spotted her friend Ellie who was on the tire swing. Aliva burst over to her and asked her "Have you seen my phone that says my name on it?"

"No" replied Ellie but I think I heard a ringing noise by the swings.

Aliva ran as fast as a cheetah to the swings and guess what she saw? She saw her other friend Alanis playing on it! Her face was scrunched up and her teeth showed in anger!

Aliva grabbed it and ran away. Alanis told the teacher and Aliva showed the teacher that it said her name on it. The teacher asked did you let her use it? "NO" screamed Aliva "I already told you my name is on the phone and I wouldn't be this mad if I let her use it!" explained Aliva. Her blue eyes sparkled with the truth. Right then Aliva turned to walk away and a running student tripped her and her phone slid to Alanis.

As she adjusted her glasses and tried to stand up she saw Alanis with her phone sticking her tongue out. The teachers back was turned this whole time! Aliva runs after her and once they are inside, Alanis sneaks up behind Aliva and shouts "BOO!" Aliva took the phone and said something then scrambled away.

Since Aliva was so smart she knew never to bring her phone to school again or leave it somewhere safe.
