

The Cool Hat
By: Ben Miller
March 2015.

One day Luke went to the store to buy a cool hat. As soon as he walked up to the store he saw his friend, Jerry, walking out with the hat!

Jerry lived far away so he couldn't go over and ask to borrow it.

Luke had a frown on his face. He knew Jerry loved hats but he didn't think he'd want this one!

Later, Luke was in his bright blue room trying to find a way to get the hat from Jerry. Suddenly, Harry, Luke's dog, ran as fast as a car into the room! Luke had an idea!

Luke took Harry outside and sat on him.
"Giddy up!" Nothing happened. "I said giddy up!" Nothing happened. "Well I can't get to Jerry's house that way." He said out loud.

Luke went back to his room. Then he saw Chip, another friend, riding his bike. Luke had a very good idea! Luke ran out of the house and asked Chip if he could borrow it. "Sure!
but be sure to bring it back!"

Luke rode Chip's bike to Jerry's house and knocked on the door.

"Can I borrow your hat?" Luke asked. "But I already gave it to someone else." Jerry replied. "Oh no not again!"
