

Getting a Dog
By: Hunter
March 2015

Parker was running to the door while Hunter was talking. "BYE," Parker yelled as he shut the door.

In the car Parker's feet kept bouncing and his hands shook from excitement.

Parker said to his mother, "What kind of dog should I get?" "Maybe a Husky?" mom replied. Parker, his brother Hunter, mom, and dad all drove to the dog store.

Parker couldn't wait to get a dog and Parker thought he was going to find one right away.

Parker got to the dog store and he searched and researched on his tablet but he couldn't find a dog.

"Well let's try a different store," his dad said. A few minutes later his dad said, "Sorry Parker, but we can't find another dog store there are no dogs anywhere."

OKAY!

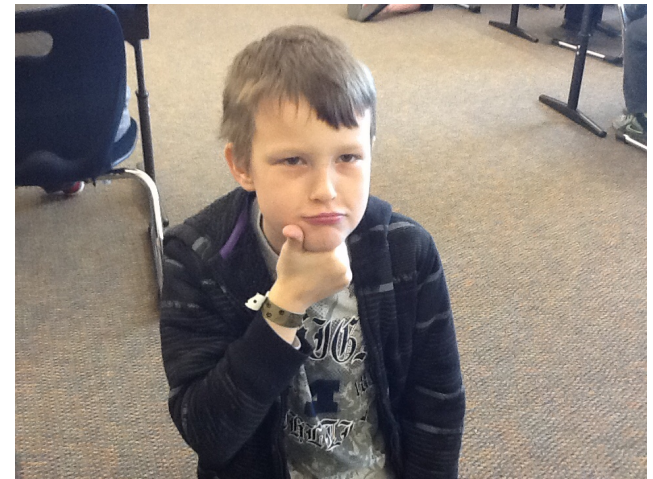

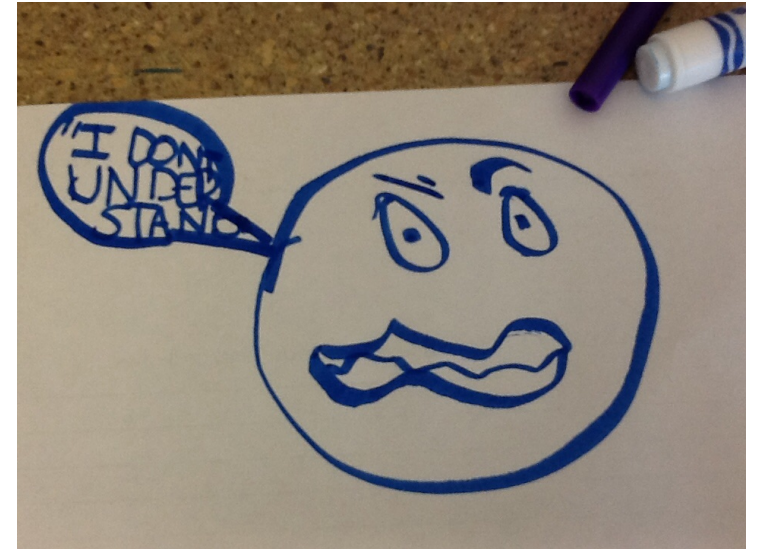

"Okay, but I really wanted a dog." Parker said with a sigh.
"Wait I know where dogs are!" Mom shouted.

"Let's go to the mall" Mom said.
"But there are no dogs there!" Parker said.
"Just trust me," Mom said like she was in a rush.

"Okay," Parker groaned. They rushed into the car and his mom sped off towards the mall.

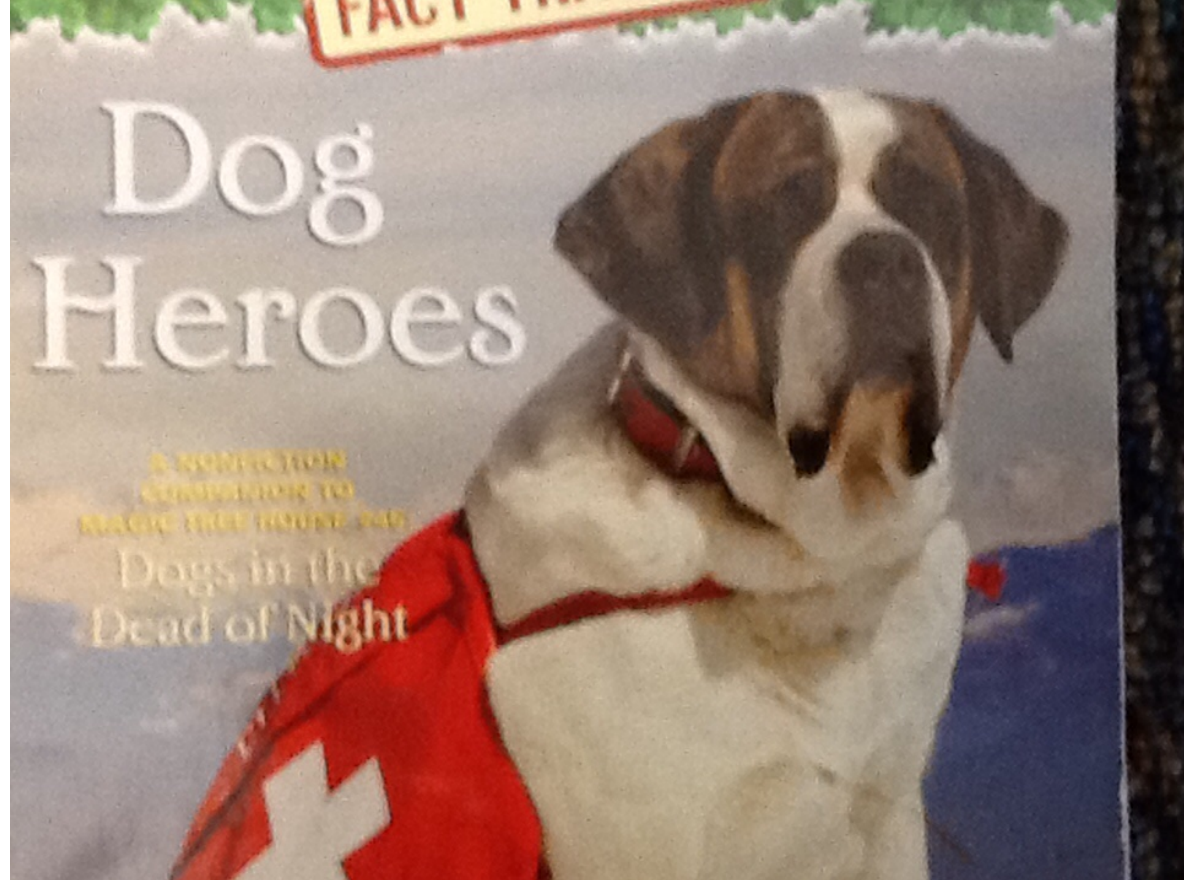

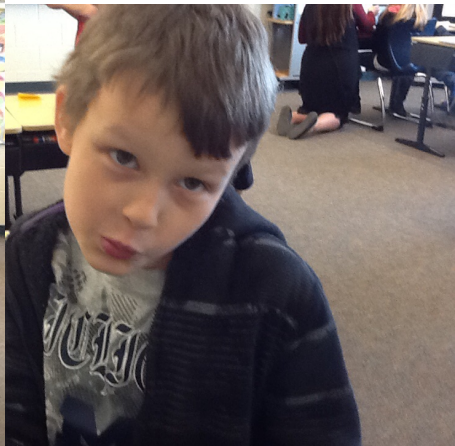

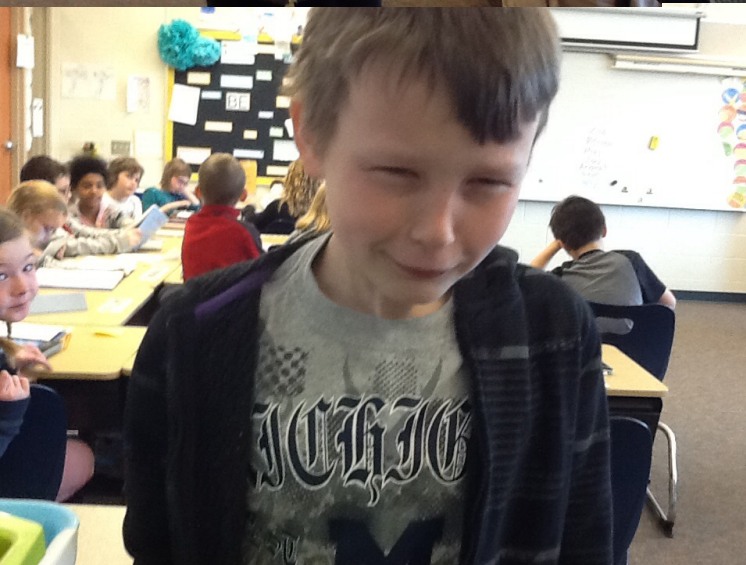

Parker didn't understand why his mom was so excited or what she was up to. But he trusted her.

"Here we are at Build a Bear," said his mom.

"Where would I get a dog here?" Parker asked.

5+uffed animal

Instead of a real dog, Parker got a stuffed animal dog. But like always, Hunter destroyed his stuffed animal dog and Parker had a frown on his face for a long time.
