KEVIN meets
new friends.

BY JAYDON.

RRRING! The recess bell rang Kevin got his stuff. And ran outside to meet new friends.

But a kid named Alex "said" you won't get a single friend at the end of the week "said Alex in a mean voice. So Kevin just ignored him and walked away. And tried to do plan B.

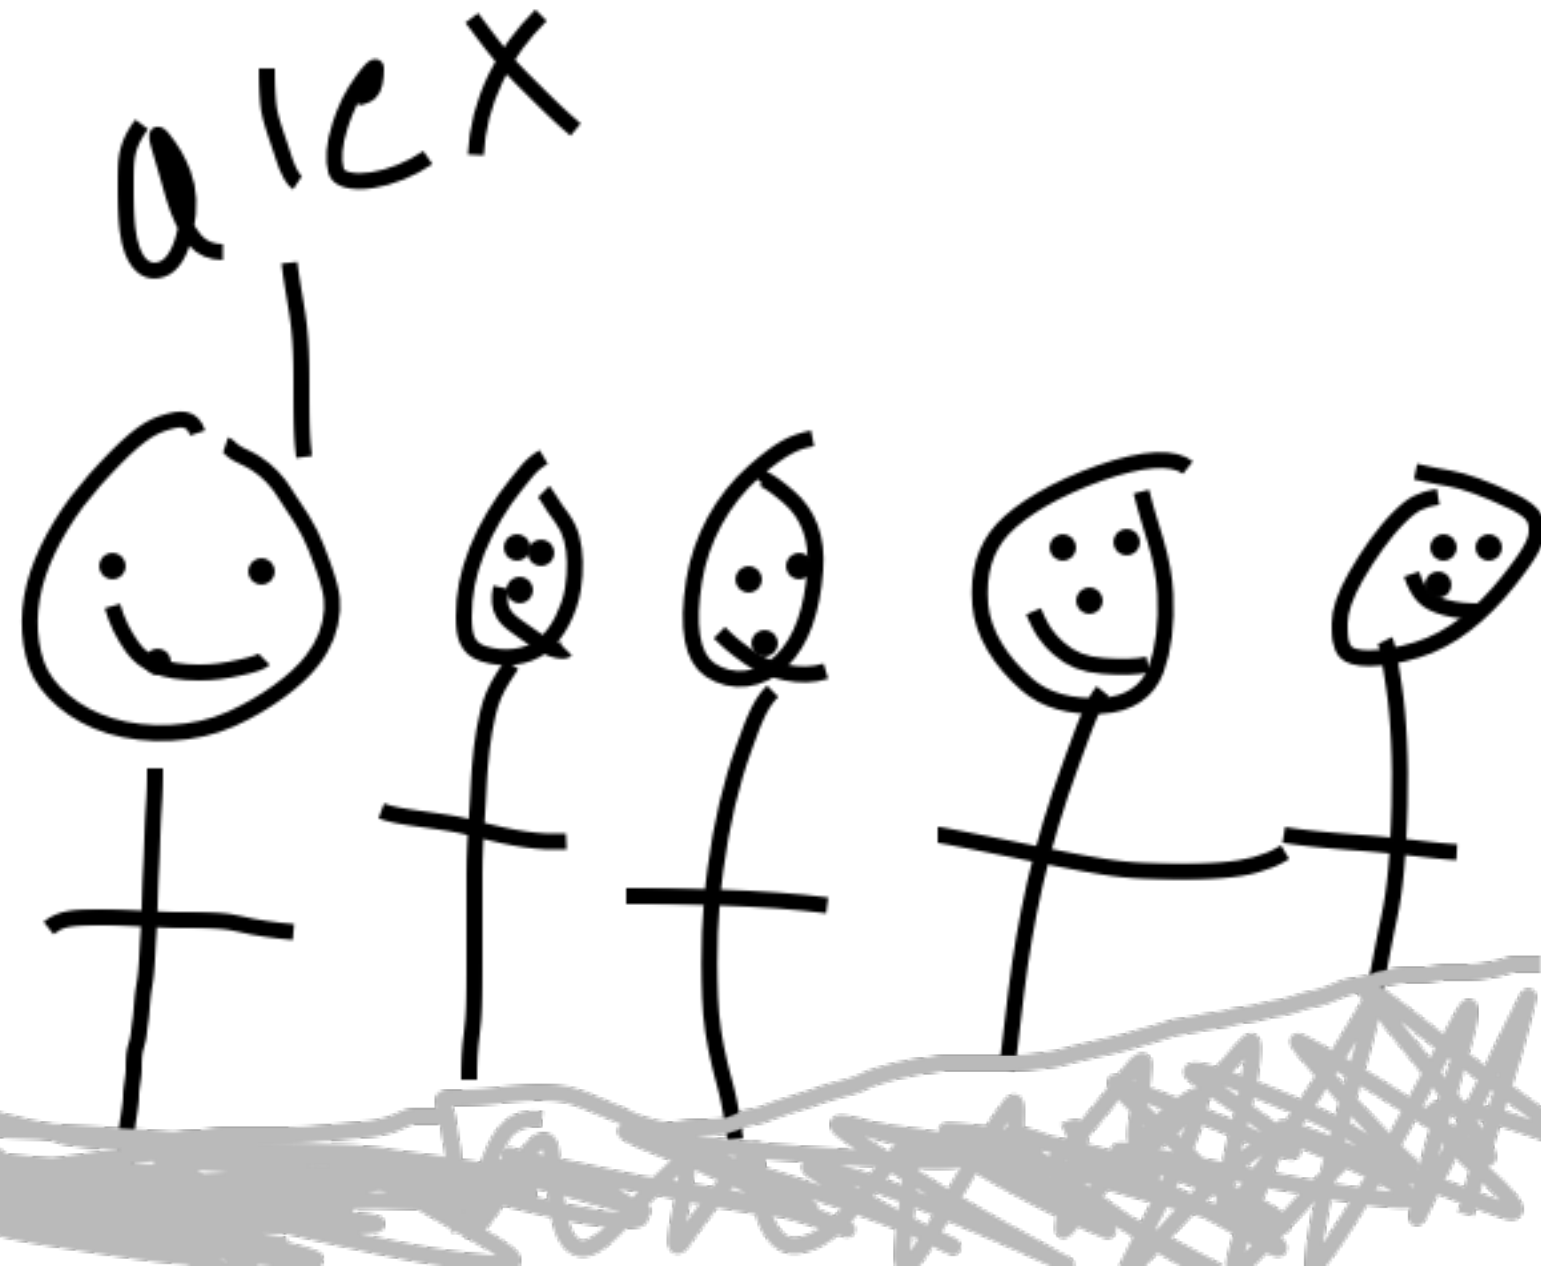

Plan B is to see if other people would ask him.

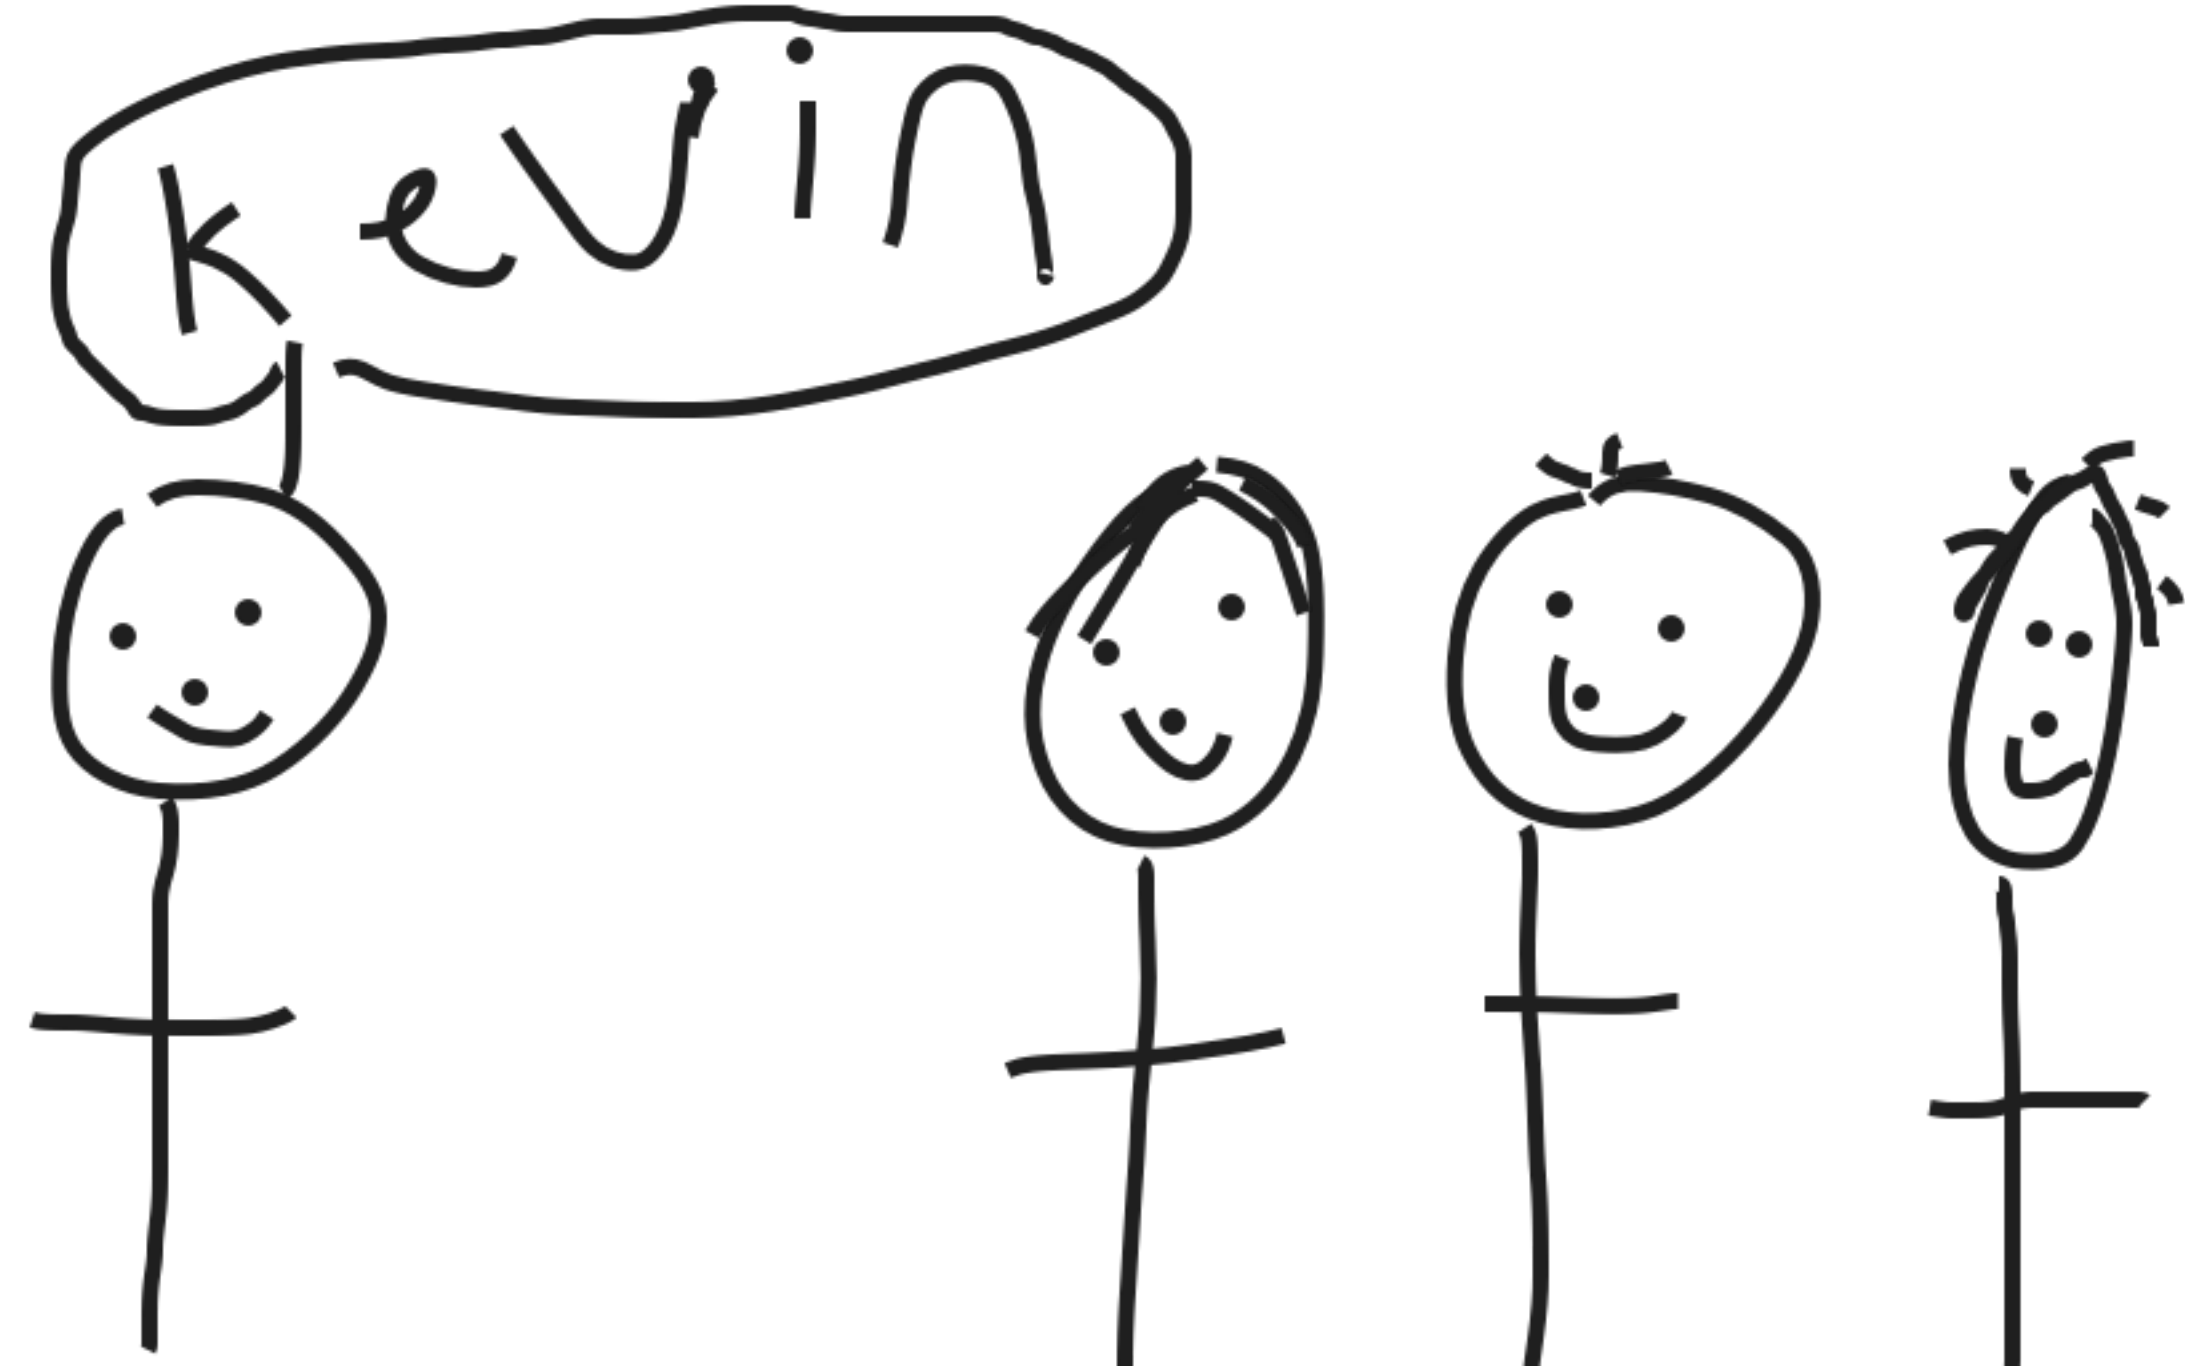

Kevin stood there on the cement. The fresh wind hit him. The kids were ready for him to ask them.

But on the other side was Alex he ran to ask some kids before Kevin could ask one kid to be his friend.

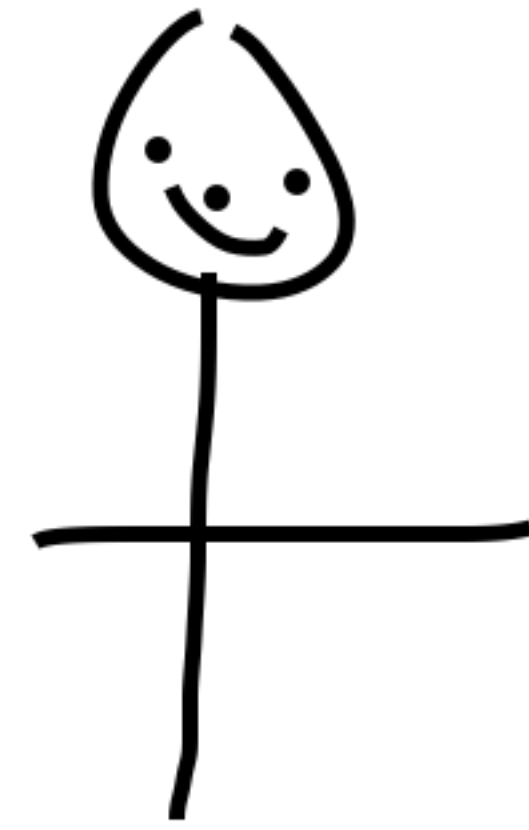

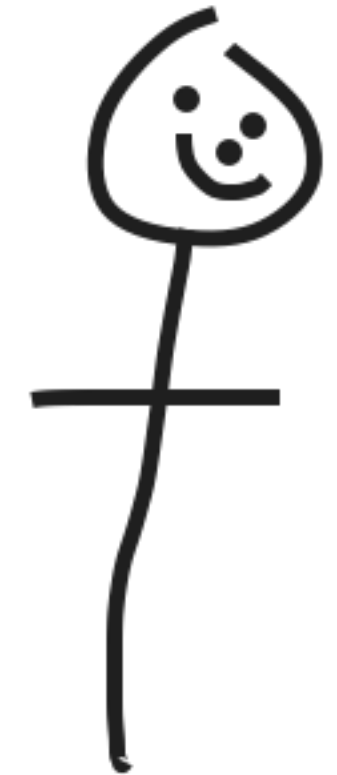

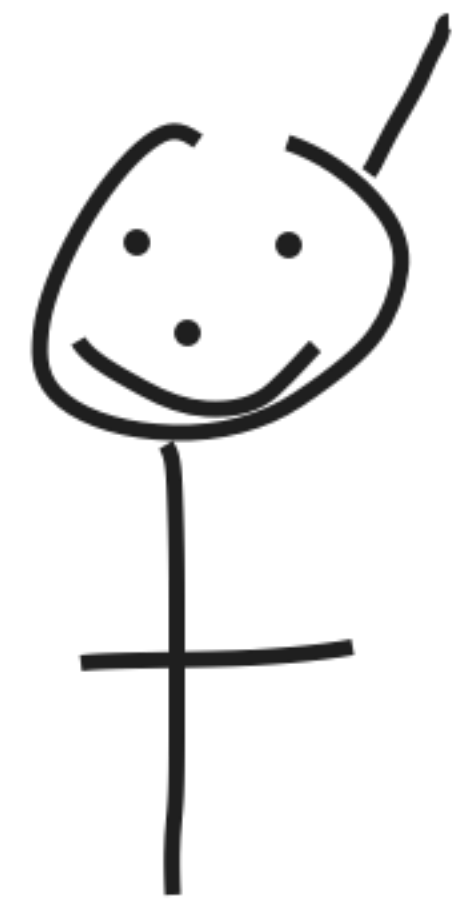

But right that moment 3 kids asked him. Kevin was so happy that they asked him. They could play a 1,000 games. But first he needs to know there names. 1 name Jorge. 2 name Bob. 3 name Jones.

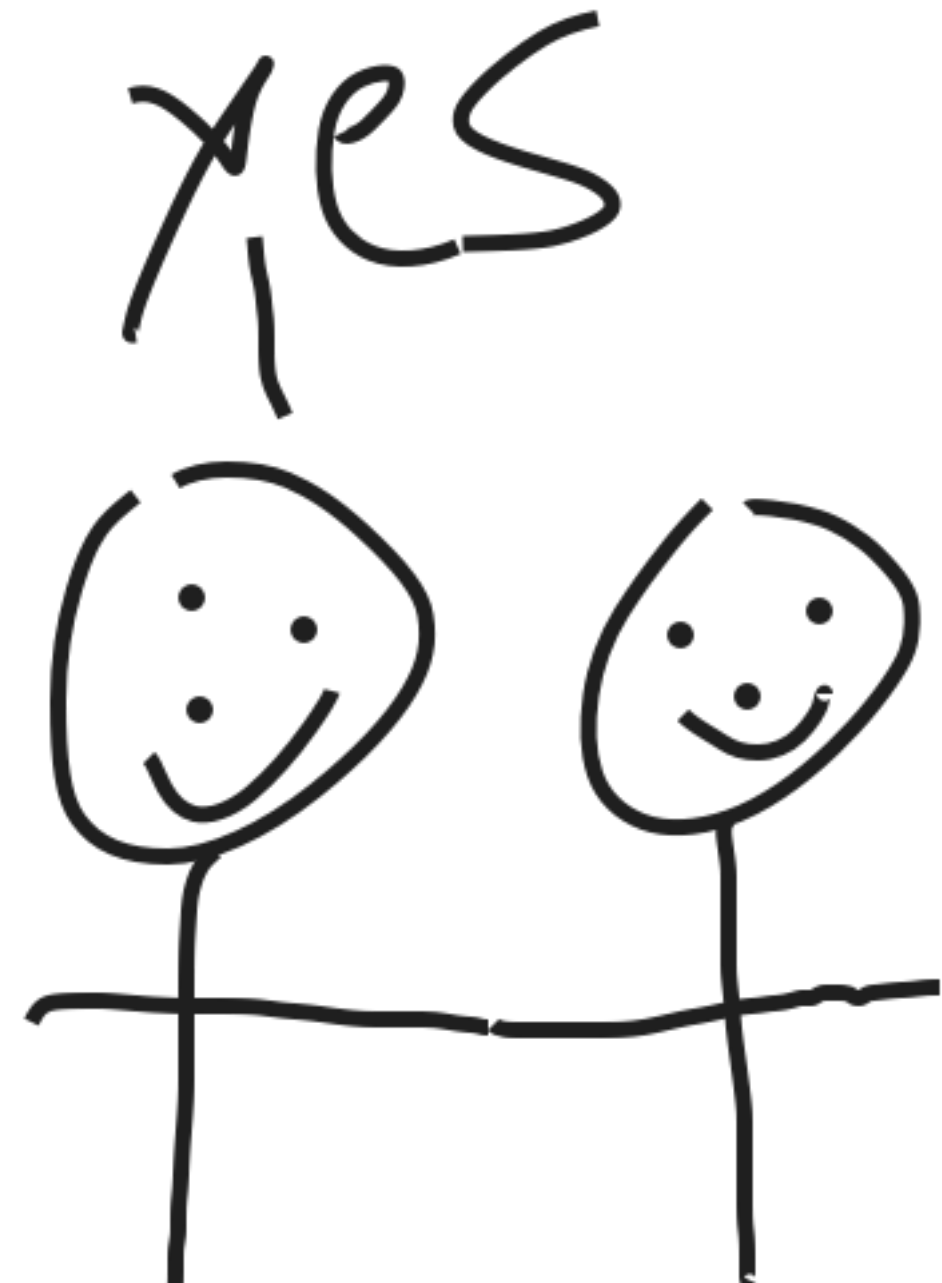

So they said their names and started playing.
The first game they played was freeze tag. Kevin was it first. Kevin ran to tag Bob but he was faster so Kevin couldn't get him.

Kevin Bob Tom

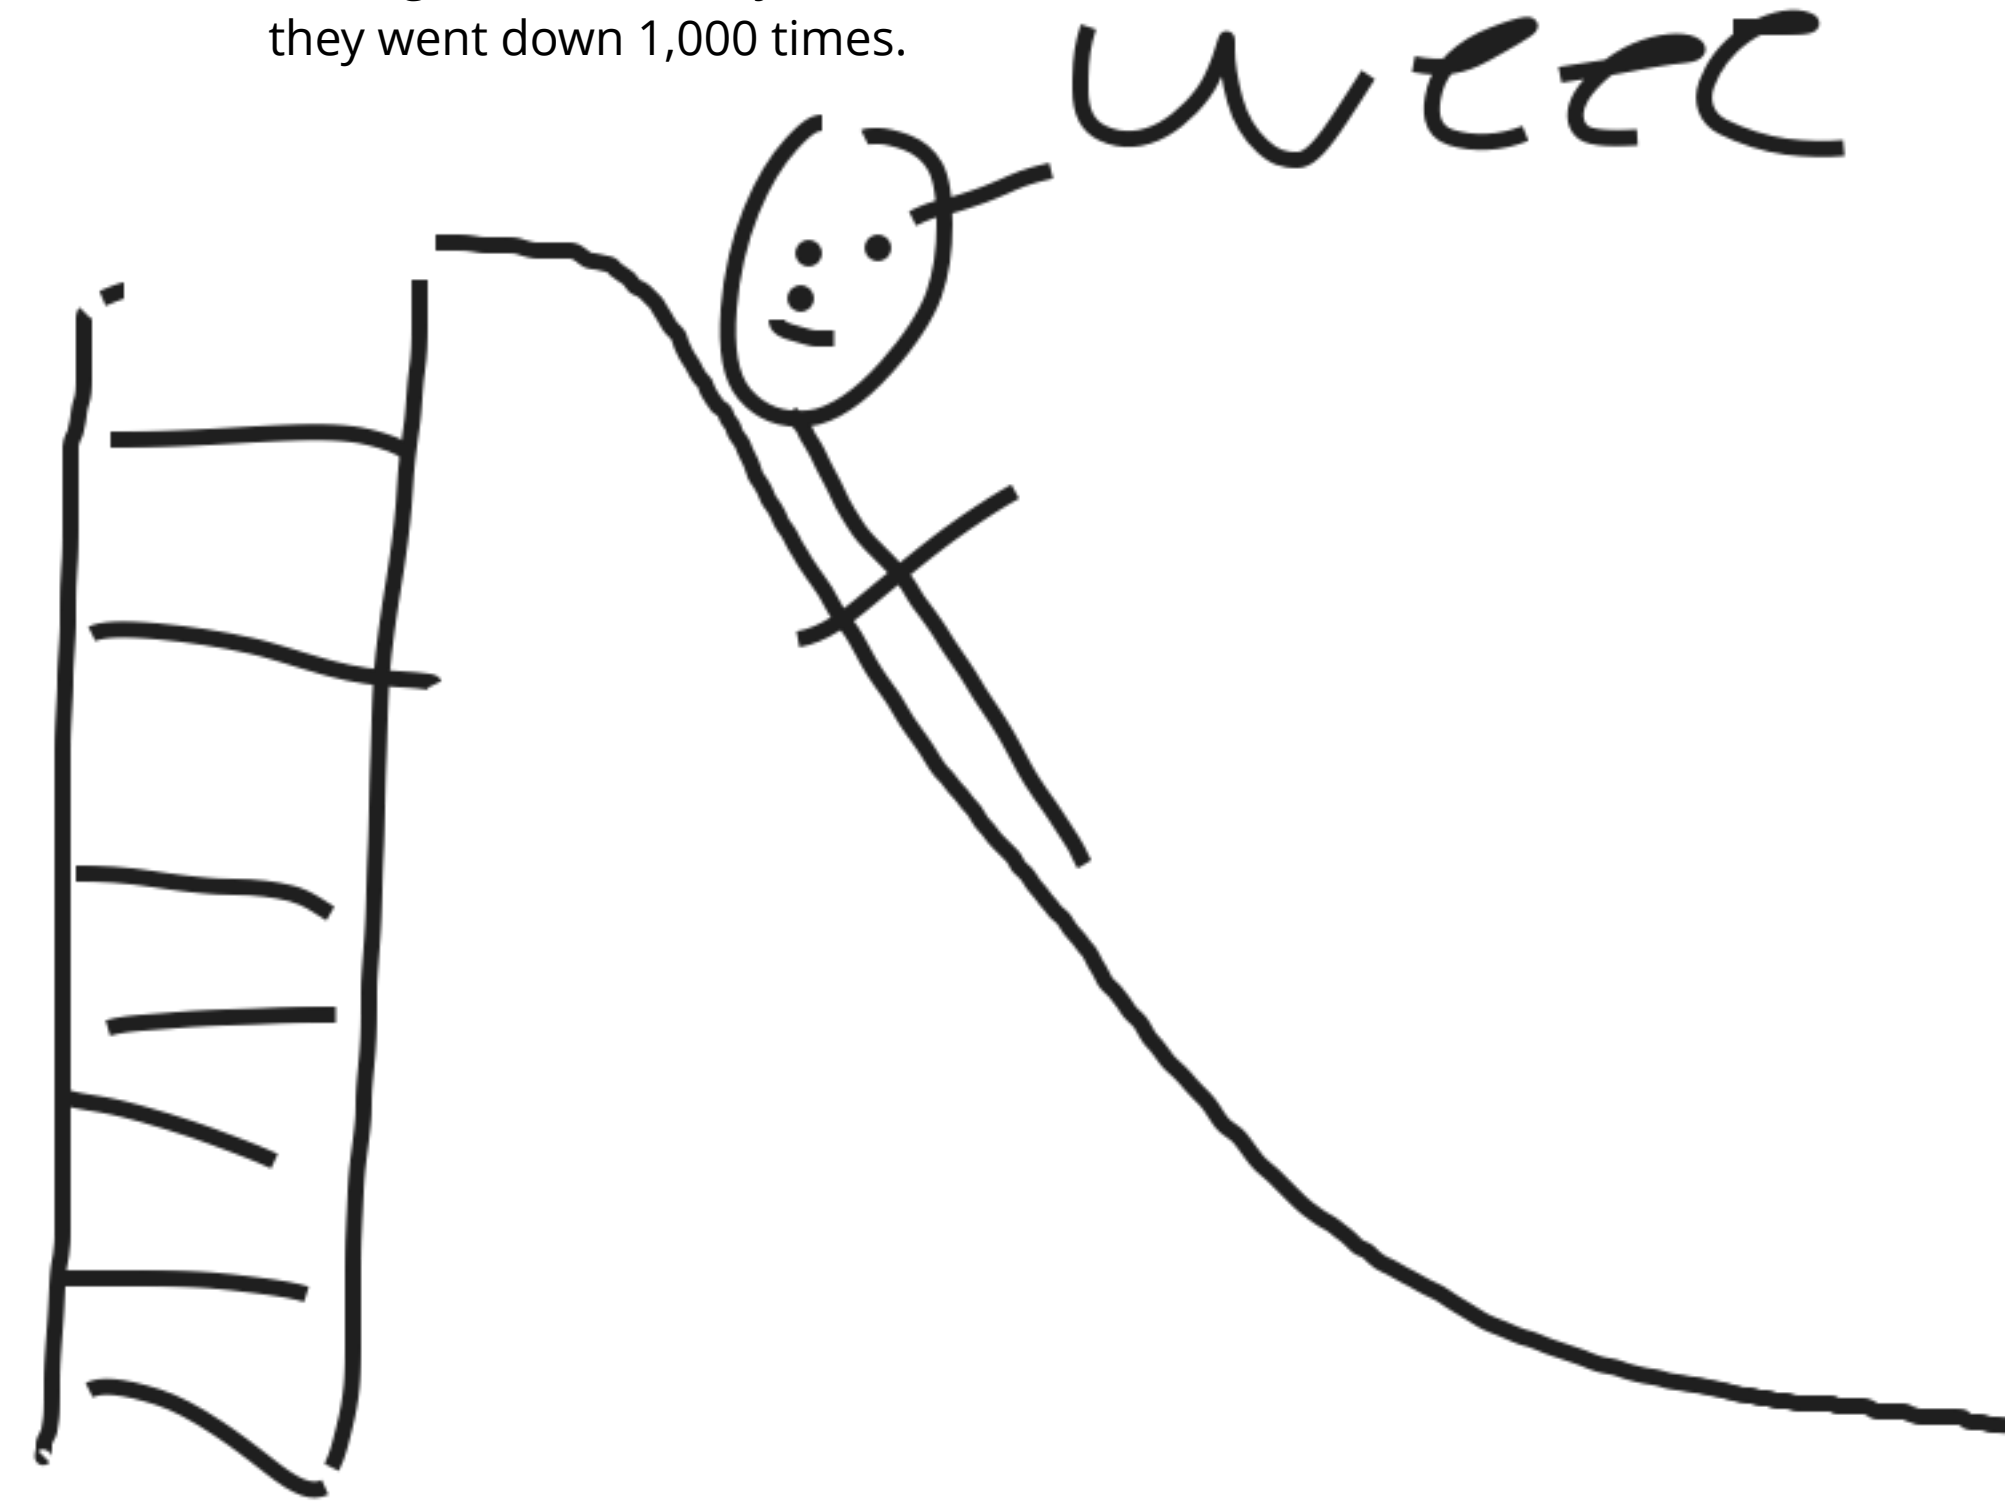

So he went to tag Jorge.

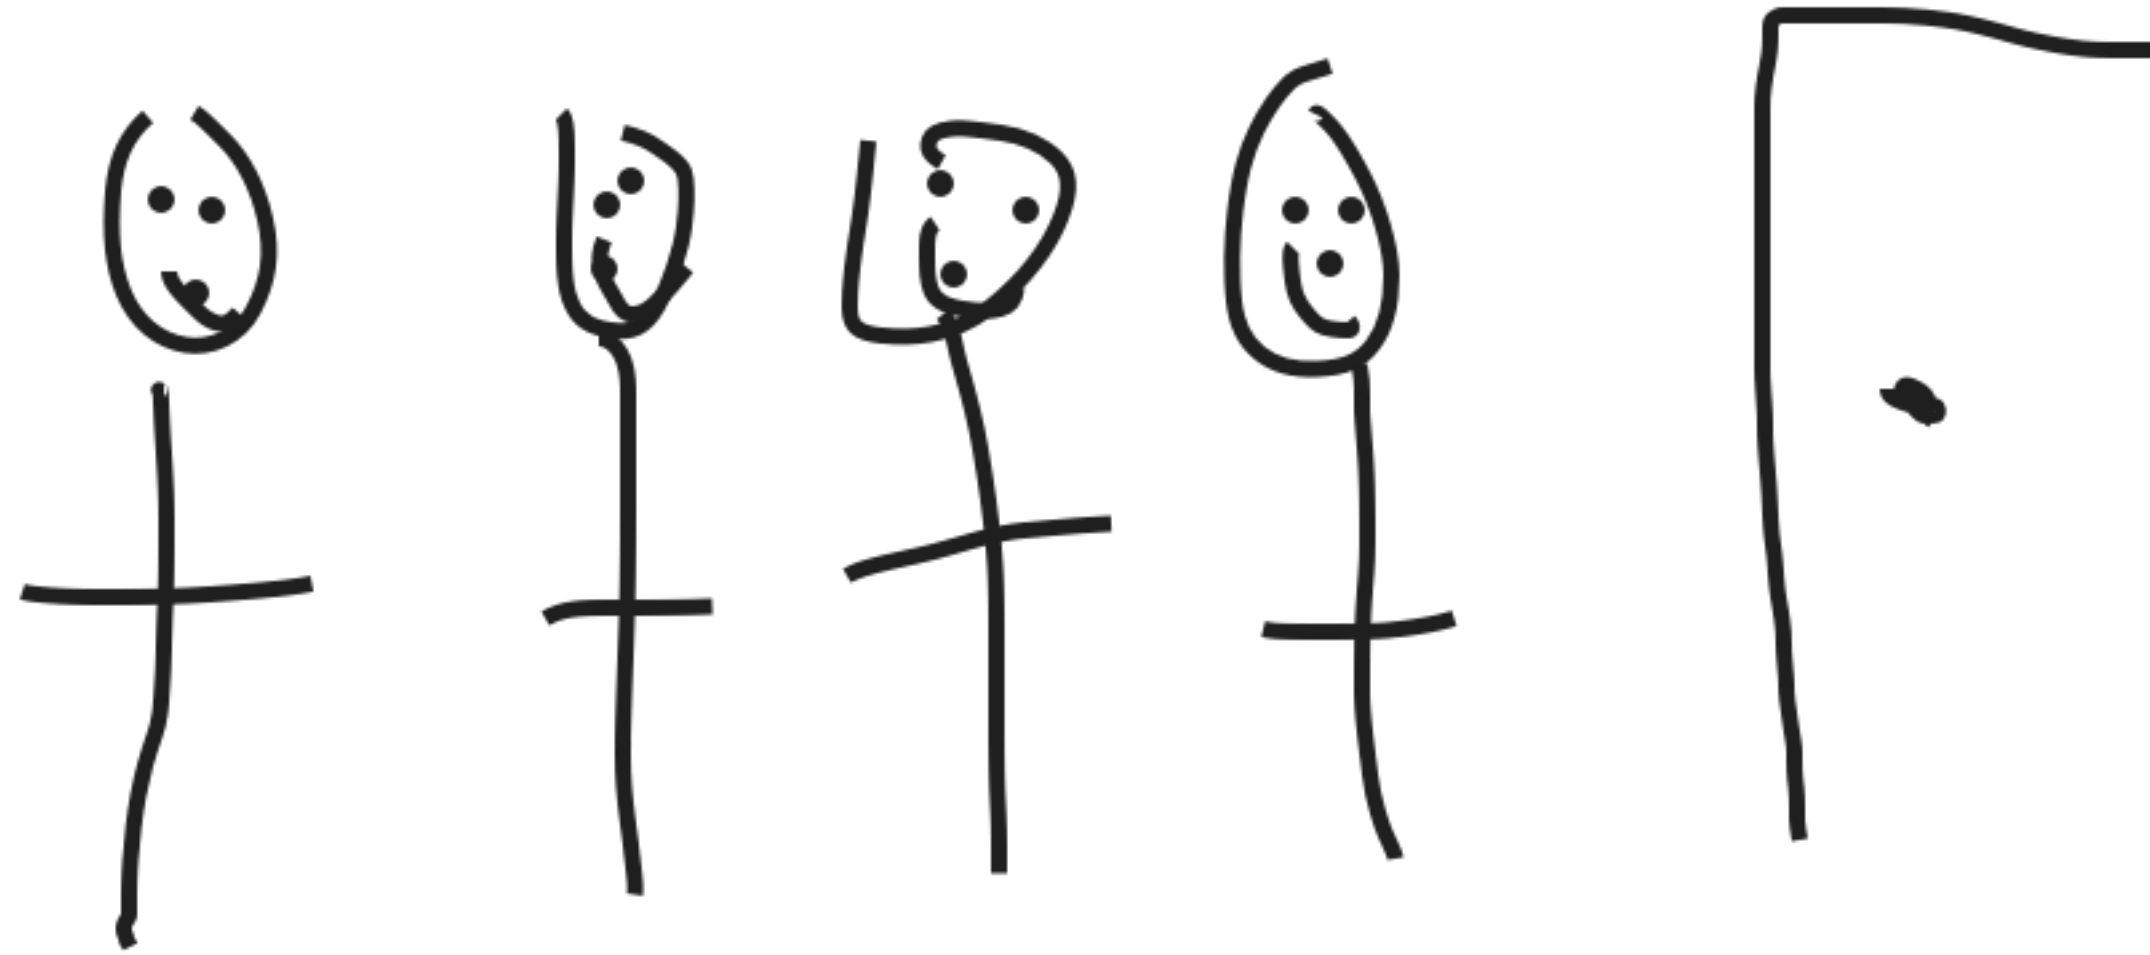

And got him but they were tiered after a while so they stopped.

So they just played on the playground waiting for Jones. Jones got there so they went down the slide. It felt like they went down 1,000 times.

But then the recess bell Rang so they went inside for lunch.

Kevin learned a important lesson to never trust a kid that says something mean to you.
