

Braylon Learns a Lesson

March 2015

"Mom, mom, mom!
can I go over to Brysen's House
please?" She said,
"No we have to go to the store." Then Braylon went to his room and started to cry.

He thought his mom
was going to say yes
but she didn't. Then Braylon tried and tried and tried to make his mom say yes but she just wouldn't say it.

He just kept crying, and crying, and crying, for the longest time! It was the most he'd ever cried in his life.

Then he asked one more time and she still said, "No." So he just went to his room and screamed in his pillow for ten minutes.

He puts his pillow down and remembers that he still had Brysen on the phone. He never gave him an answer. Quickly he picked up the phone and said "Brysen you there still?"

" Yeah"

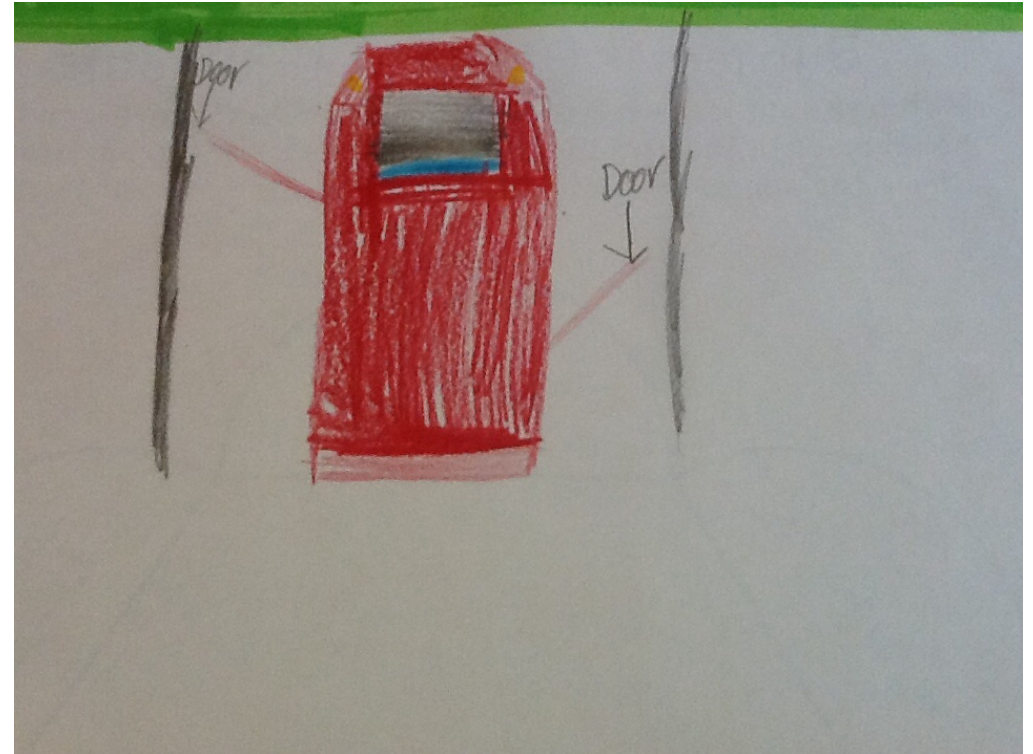

"I can't come over today I have to go to the store with my mom."

"So see you tomorrow at school" Braylon said.

"Ok," so Braylon hung up and saw his moms foot prints in the carpet. He ran to his room and jumped on to his big bed. His mom came in and said "Sorry you can't go, we have to get some food."

Braylon got his shoes on and went to the car. Then Braylon's mom drove past the store. Braylon said "Aren't we going there?" "Nope Brysen's mom invited us to dinner we are having steak and potatoes."

So they parked their car outside in the parking lot and knocked on the big brown door and said "We came to dinner!"

Brysen said "Who is it?"
Then Brysen's mom said
"You come and look!"
Brysen said "Its Braylon!" Brysen's mom said "Are you guys ready to eat?"
"Yes we are," so Brysen's
mom laid out the plates.

So they all ate and then Braylon asked "Can I stay
the night?"
"Yes you may."
Then Braylon's mom left and they all watched a movie and went to sleep.
The next day Braylon's mom called and said "I will be there 11:00 sharp," and when it was 11:00 she wasn't there...
