

The Trouble In Class

By: Lola

Have you ever been told that you can't do what you love to do? That is what happened to Lola in class. Lola sat there bored I'm just going to talk to my friend she thought? Lola talked to her friend sitting next to her to tell her about her weekend .

But when she started talking she got in trouble by the teacher then Lola said in her head I'm going to talk to my friend even if my teacher says No! She thought

Then the teacher said one more chance Lola then Lola talked again
then the teacher said
Lola can I talk to you Lola said yes then the teacher said when I say don't talk you don't talk ok said the teacher ok said lola

Lola felt sad when the teacher talked to her then Lola never talked to her friends in school only at lunch and recess

Then Lola asked the teacher can I talk to my friends another time so when you feel like you want todo something your way remember that right to be you and do what the teacher says todo.

That to do what your teacher says to do that is what happened to Lola in class
