March 2015

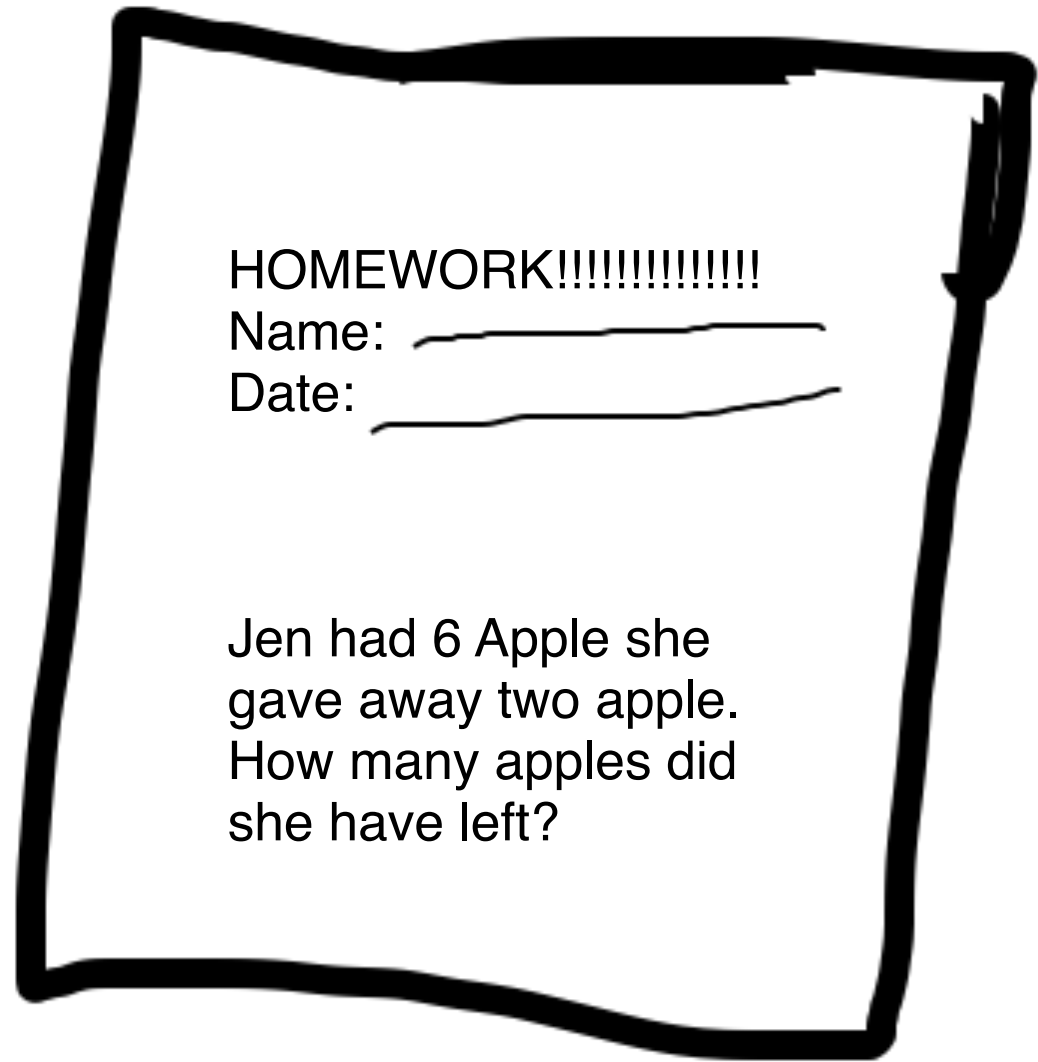

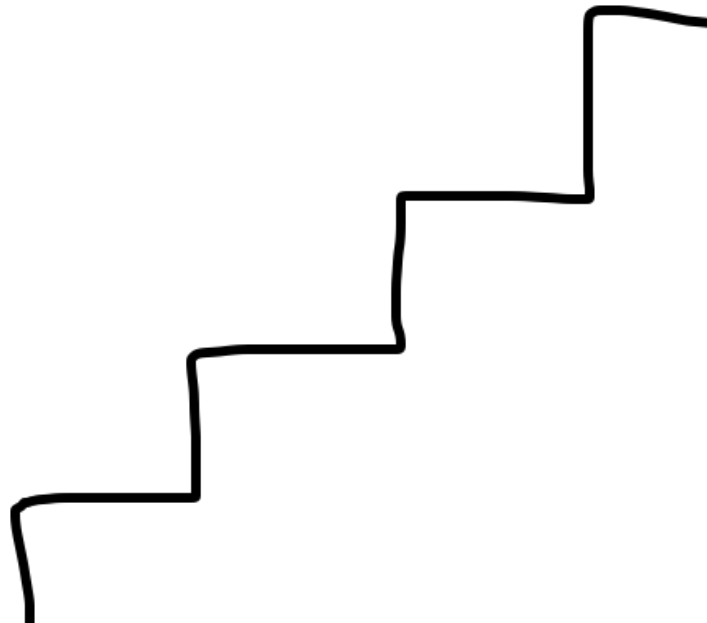

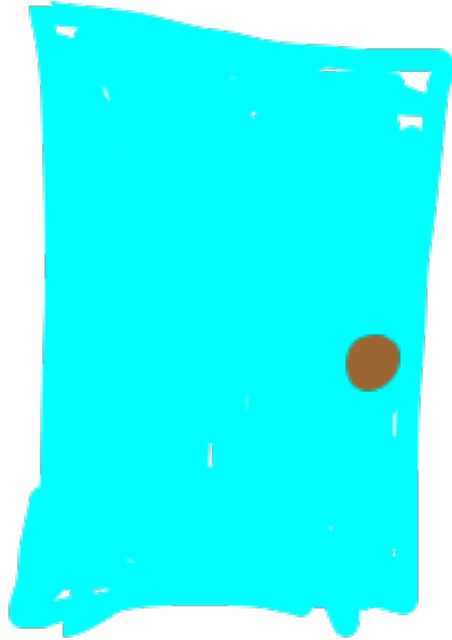

"Bye! See you later." Cacy screamed as her twinkling teeth twinkled. "Bye!" Alycia screamed back as Cacy sprinted to the bright blue door with three purple flowers on it.

Knock!
Knock!
Knock!

KNOCK! KNOCK! KNOCK!
Cacy knocked on the bright blue door with purple flowers on it.

Mom came down the stairs
and unlocked the door.
Cacy walked in.

"I'm going to go do my homework." Cacy said to her mom.

"Wait one second, Aunt Lilly dropped off your flower girl dress." Mom said.

"But I thought she didn't have enough money?" Cacy questioned. "Your dad lended her some." "Oh okay." Cacy replied.

A day later she tried on the dress. "Yes it fits!" Cacy said to herself.

Yes!

She ran down the stairs to show her mom and dad. The dress was sparkly and peach in color. She thought it was perfect for her.

She also wanted to show her friend Alycia.

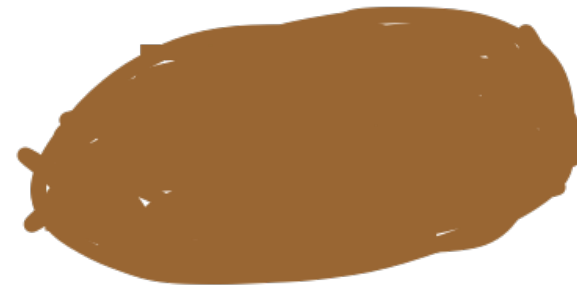

Cacy asked her mom and her mom didn't allow it because it was raining out. Her mom said "Maybe when it stops raining out." So Cacy went upstairs and did her homework.

After doing three pages of homework the rain stopped. So Cacy decided to slip on her sparkly peach dress and slid down the stair railing against the wall and went outside. She skipped to the very muddy park to show Alycia her new dress.

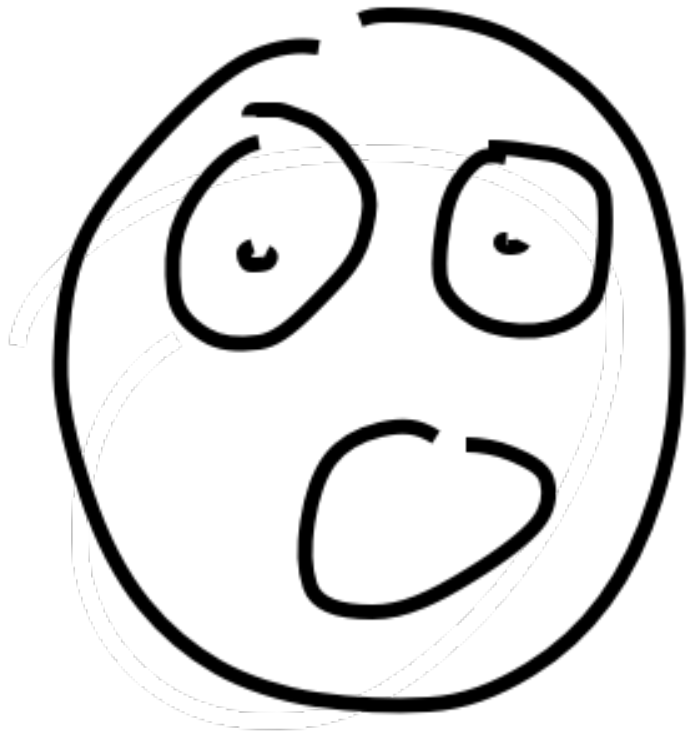

Splat!

Alycia

When she arrived Alycia wasn't there. Cacy turned back and took one step and fell in the mud!

Cacy's face was in disbelief. The mud hugged her tightly till she got up.

"Oh no!" she whined.
"What happened to my dress?!?" She screeched and she bursted with tears.

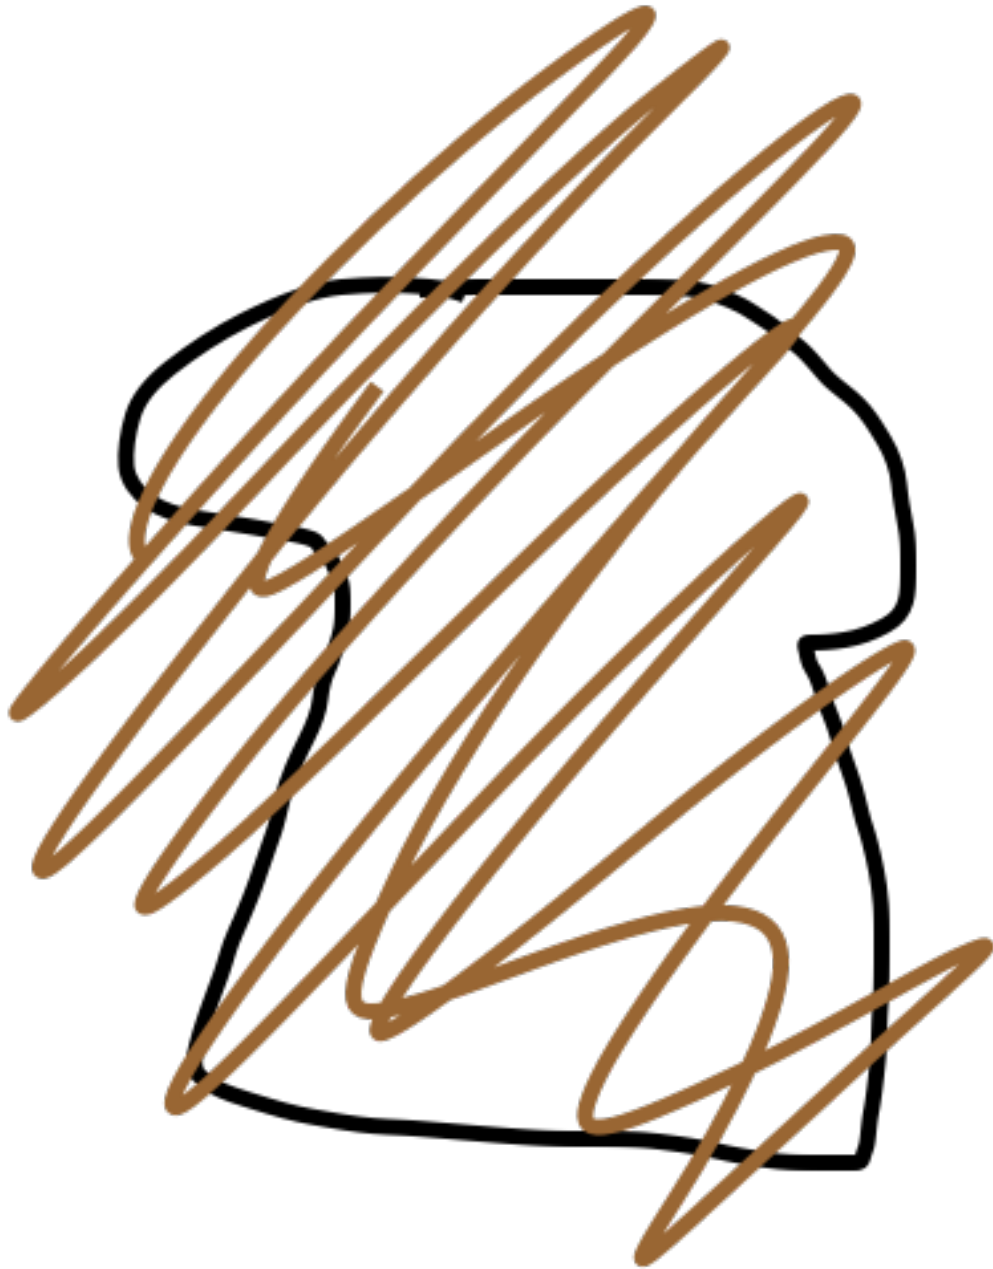

So Cacy ran to Alycia's house and she knocked and knocked on the door so many times. Alycia ran down the stairs and almost tripped every step.

"Alycia come look what happened to my dress..."

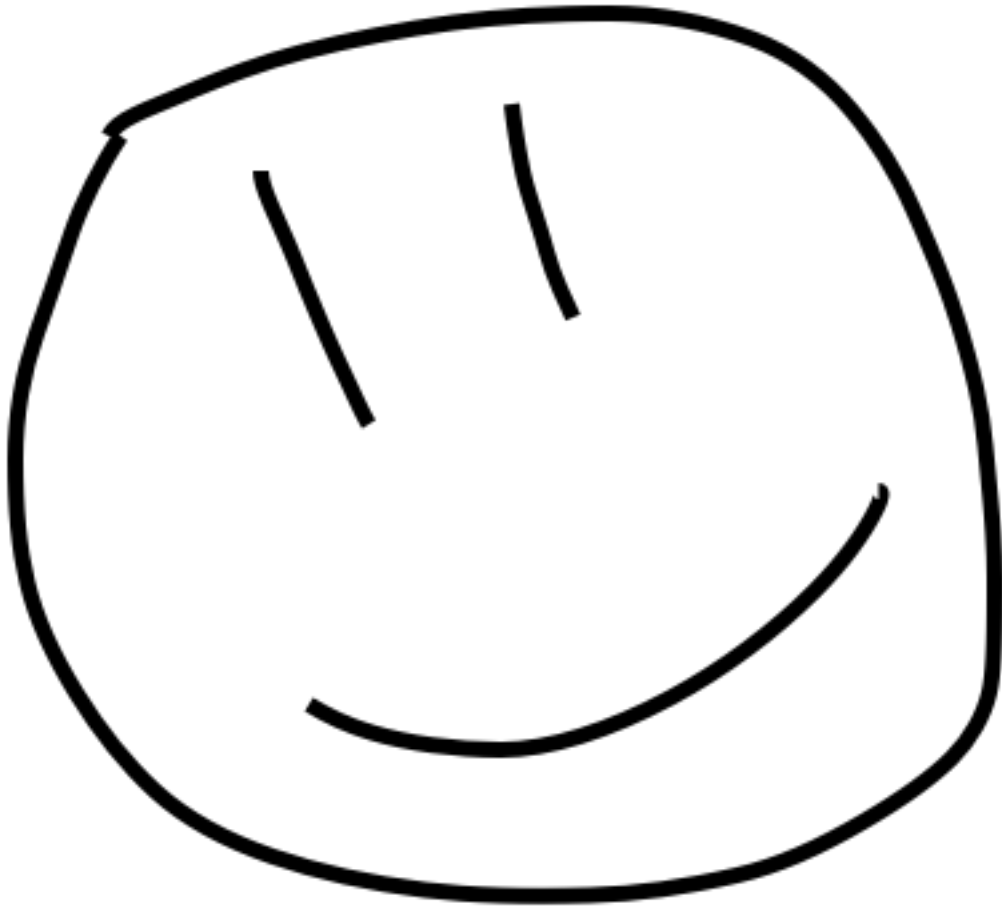

"Oh no! it got mud all over it". Alycia shouted. Her eyes were wide and face was red in shock.

don't know

"Well duh! Who wouldn't get mud on their dress!?!?!" Cacy said sarcastically.
"What should I do?"

"Well I can try to help
but I can only take you to your house."
Alycia replied.

"NO! NO! NO! We can't I will get grounded." "Well we need to get you cleaned up." Alycia said.

"Well I can't get myself cleaned up with out a washer!! I don't have a washer and you don't either." Cacy said to Alycia.

All of a sudden Alycia and Cacy heard something down the road. "CACY!" her mom said louder and louder. She saw she was missing by now.

"I have to go my mom is looking for me!"
Cacy said to Alycia.

So Cacy's moms voice disappeared. Cacy thought that she had been hidden away from her so Cacy ran to her house.

The house was silent
door, "HI MOM!!!!,"

"Cacy look at your dress!" Her mom shouted. "Mom it was an accident." "I know it was I understand it." "You do?"
Cacy asked. "We can just bring it to a laundromat." "Okay!" Cacy said in shock that her mom wasn't mad at her.

As her mom said that, Cacy's bright blue eyes had tears coming down her face because she felt guilty.

One month later the wedding day came. At that moment Cacy learned a good lesson which is to always wait till all of the rain and wetness dry up to go outside.
